XV. Sponsor Update

- Temporary Restraining order update: After issuing a temporary restraining order (TRO) to block the Ohio Department of Education transition, a Franklin County judge approved the dissolution of the TRO allowing the transfer of the state education board’s powers to shift to a governor-appointed individual.
- You should have received an email from Kurt Aey regarding the fall contract modifications. The Fall 2023 Community School Contract Modification updates reflect recent changes in the law, as well as updates to the performance framework to reflect the current school year and changes to state report cards. The original signed modification must be received no later than January 31, 2024. We are also requiring a copy of the signed modification and resolution approving the modification be uploaded into Epicenter. If the school uses a secure electronic document signature system to sign the modification, there is no need to mail it via post. The modification will be effective when the ESCLEW Superintendent signs it, unless indicated otherwise in the modification terms. If you have any questions, please reach out to Kurt Aey.

During the November site visits we reviewed the progress on the 11. 6 goals discussed the climate and culture of the building and discussed the progression of PBIS.

Our Financial consultant Linda Moye holds a monthly phone meeting with the school’s treasurer, a completed report of this meeting is emailed to all board members. At this time, there were no red flags discussed. If you have any questions regarding your school’s financials, we encourage you to reach out to your treasurer.
