NJHS Selection Process

Selection for membership in the National Junior Honor Society (NJHS) is based on a careful evaluation of students' demonstrated excellence in the five pillars of NJHS: Scholarship, Service, Leadership, Character, and Citizenship. Students who meet the academic requirement (a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or higher) are invited to apply for membership.

Eligible students must submit a written essay highlighting how they exemplify at least two of the five pillars. Faculty members are then asked to provide input on each candidate's qualifications.

A Faculty Council reviews all applications, essays, and recommendations to make final decisions regarding membership.
